

LA JEUNESSE YOUTH ORCHESTRA

MUSIC FOR LIFE!

LJYO enriches the lives of all who participate by providing a myriad of interactive learning experiences. Through orchestra rehearsal, public performance, and education opportunities, LJYO opens minds and hearts and develops community.

In its eleventh season under the leadership of Michael Lyons, Music Director, and Laurie Mitchell, Director of Strings, La Jeunesse Youth Orchestra provides young musicians with the opportunity to perform a wide range of symphonic repertoire. Based in Port Hope, the Orchestra draws members from as far as Oshawa and Lindsay. In addition to our three public concerts (see other side), field trips to professional performances are integral to our calendar, and concert tours to schools inspire our members and many other students.

Check our website frequently for updates on our activities. Please note that auditions for our 2010/2011 season will be held June 10-12, 2010. For more information or to order concert tickets, contact:

Presenting LJYO's 11th season

Special guests Michael Danso & Nathaniel Anderson-Frank perform with the Orchestra in not-to-be missed concerts

Our 11th concert season begins with an exciting collaboration, as vocalist Michael Danso joins us in 'Home for the Holidays', Sunday November 29, 7 pm.

Danso, whose career has seen him take the stage in Riverdance, Jesus Christ Superstar, and Threepenny Opera, is featured in arrangements by LJYO coach David Tanner. Including seasonal favourites such as Winter Wonderland, Baby It's Cold Outside, and White Christmas, 'Home For The Holidays' is sure to warm your heart.

Internationally acclaimed jazz vocalist Michael Danso performs with LJYO in 'Home For The Holidays,' November 29.

The season continues with another audience favourite, 'In The Spotlight', Sunday February 21, 3 pm. This annual opportunity for some of our most accomplished performers will feature soloists Anna Karpazis (marimba), Kate Louws (flute), Colleen Jenish (violin), Sarah McCabe (violin), and Jane Cook (French horn).

All three concerts will be held at the Port Hope United Church. Advance tickets can be ordered by mail, by phone at 1-866-460-LJYO, through the Capitol Theatre in Port Hope (1-800-434-5092) or the Concert Hall at Victoria Hall in Cobourg (905-372-2210).

Our season culminates with a symphonic welcome to spring, 'Sonic Bloom', Sunday May 16, 7 pm. Always a deeply satisfying musical experience, Sonic Bloom challenges our members with repertoire that would not be out of place for professional ensembles. Our special guest this year will be violinist Nathaniel Anderson-Frank. Now a Masters candidate at the Royal Academy of Music in London, England, Anderson-Frank is an alumnus of the Festival Pablo Casals, the Perlman Music Program, and the National Academy Orchestra of Canada.

Violinist Nathaniel Anderson-Frank joins LJYO for the season finale 'Sonic Bloom' on May 16, 2010.
